THE SHOT HEARD AROUND THE WORLD

. . . November 24, 1963

One bullet from this gun changed the course of history when Jack Ruby used it to slay Lee Harvey Oswald, the alleged assassin of President JFK. Now you can be one of the original owners of this highly collectable bullet shot from The Most Famous Gun in the World the Jack Ruby .38 Special Colt Cobra.

Limited Edition

Only 5,000 of these historic collector bullets will be available worldwide. Each authentic artifact consists of a brass case by Remmington and a copper jacketed bullet which is individually inscribed and numbered.

Collector Set: This special limited edition has proven value. One of these bullets sold at Herman Darvick Auctions (NYC) for over $500 in June 1992. The bullet and cartridge case are set in a solid cherry wood glass-top case with Ruby red Presidential velvet lining and corresponding numbered polished brass identification plaque. You also get a Certificate of Authenticity, color photo of the Jack Ruby Colt Cobra, an affidavit from Earl Ruby (Jack Ruby's brother) and a copy of the property receipt from the Dallas Police issued at the time of Jack Ruby's arrest.
